This page is currently inactive and is retained for historical reference.
Either the page is no longer relevant or consensus on its purpose has become unclear. To revive discussion, seek broader input via a forum such as the village pump.

Note*: Please do not add articles that are being affected largely by just one user or IP address. This is for "Frequent vandalism from many people", NOT "Frequent vandalism from one person". Please report vandalism from one person at Wikipedia:Administrator intervention against vandalism or Wikipedia:Long term abuse and not here. Thank you.*

This page lists some articles that have undergone repeated vandalism. Please watch the following articles closely and revert any vandalism as appropriate. Generally, any page listed here is being watched since the articles below cannot be protected for one reason or another. Ideally, pages that have been protected are listed at Wikipedia:Protected pages and do not necessarily need to be listed here. The reasons why these pages are being vandalized are sometimes obvious, such as political reasons, religious reasons, substantial reasons, personal belief reasons, and reasons regarding immature editing on pages describing subjects such as articles pertaining to excretion, profanity, and sex. Also, "commonly visible pages" such as Wikipedia-related pages, Main Page links, the user pages of extremely active users, etc. are vandalized heavily. For some articles, however, the reasons for persistent vandalism remain unclear.

This is an example of a "shared watchlist", sorted into different categories. You can add to this list, and then click on "Related changes" to find out all the latest changes here. A bot also maintains a number of lists, for easy importing into watchlists (choose edit raw watchlist and paste the list). These lists can be viewed here.

Remember, when adding to this list, please place articles in the proper categories in alphabetical order. See User:Emijrp/Statistics for a list of the most deleted and protected pages.

Ironically, on January 29, 2011, this page was semi-protected by Wikipedia administrator HJ Mitchell for persistent vandalism, and he commented "oh the irony!" It remained semi-protected until May 20, 2020, when Wikipedia administrator Primefac upgraded this to full protection, on the basis that the page became obsolete upon the introduction of Pending Changes.

Frequent vandalism from many people

"*": denotes living person
"bold": denotes exceptionally high vandalism, especially because of controversy (e.g., Middle East), recent events (e.g., 2011 Tōhoku earthquake and tsunami), or simply because the article is popular and read often (e.g., Barack Obama)

Specific anonymous vandals

[subscribe]

- 2000s One-hit wonders in the United States (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views) -- anon repeatedly removes entries, and occasionally blanks the list. The criteria for inclusion is clearly stated on the page, and I have repeatedly asked for discussion on the talk page and on the talk pages of the various IP addresses, but I have received no response other than continued vandalism. I attempted a vprotect, but after the week the vandalism continued. --DropDeadGorgias (talk) 19:20, 1 November 2005 (UTC) [reply]
  - NOTE, the same set of IPs that vandalize this page also frequently vandalize Kirk Fogg (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views). --DropDeadGorgias (talk) 22:09, 1 November 2005 (UTC) [reply]
- Brazil national football team (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views) Vandalized daily by multiple anonymous IP address users.

- Game shows - several anon editors frequently vandalize the following pages, either by deliberately adding very small pieces of incorrect information, or by adding intentional violations of WP:STYLE. If the article has a section or sections on "studios" and/or "broadcast history", these sections are attacked the most often:
  - Finders Keepers (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views)
  - Make the Grade (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views)
  - Supermarket Sweep (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views)

- List of transgendered people (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views) an anonymous AOL editor from VA (205.188.117.*, 64.12.117.5, 152.163.101.5) persistently removing or hiding three "Catholic" entries on the list for months.
- Lithuania (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views) related

- Nelson Mandela (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views) (Mohammed Mandela vandal)
- New York City Subway-related articles, including pages related to New York City Subway rolling stock (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views) and List of New York City Subway services (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views) (but not the aforementioned pages themselves). Some examples are:

- Taiwan (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views) - anonymous vandal with ever-changing IP addresses who turns this into an article on the Republic of China
  - Template:Republic of China infobox (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs) - same anon as above, changes this template to reflect the whole of China.
- Tony Mokbel (edit | talk | history | links | watch | logs | views) -- This page is the consistent target of a vandal that is using multiple IP addresses(probably using a Proxy server, or IP masking) to delete a real image of Mokbel(shown a wig on, after he was arrested in Greece) and insert his own image instead.
